

CY FFA

NEWSLETTER

August, 2020

Learning to Do ~ Doing to Learn ~ Earning to Live ~ Living to Serve

Inside this issue:

Record Books
State Fair
County Fair Wrap Up
Officer Workshops
Officer Interviews
Program of Activities

Pictured: 2019-2020 Officers: Henry Gracey, Hyrum Heward, Brodee McGee, Abbie Forbes, Madison Dickinson, Riley Guenther, Advisor: Ms. Rodgers

RECORD BOOKS

Raising an animal or any other agriculture experience is enhanced and fully complete when the paperwork is done! While not everyone's favorite part, writing down and recording the events, financials and reflecting on project goals prepares you for future growth and development.

What you need: AET login

What you do: Set up an SAE record book

When: Workshop help Aug 17th & 18th

Deadline: August 21st

AUGUST 11-15TH

OFFICER WORKSHOP

Are you considering a leadership role as a CY FFA officer? Do you have questions before you toss your hat in the ring? This meeting will give you and a parent the opportunity to ask questions, prepare your officer application and practice interview questions. Mark your calendar. Sept. 9th, 3-4 pm.

“... the one thing FFA taught me was determination. I learned that when you don't win, you must dust yourself off and try again.”
—
Matt Lohr, Virginia Commissioner of Agriculture and Consumer Services

OFFICER INTERVIEWS

Polish your boots, bring your O.D. be ready to shine! Interview with the hiring committee on September 14th from 3:00-4:30 pm. CY Library.

BACK TO SCHOOL BBQ SEPT. 16TH - CY Cafeteria

Wear your blue and gold. Bring your family and a side dish to share. Enjoy a burger or dog.
2020 FFA Awards
2020 Retiring Officers Recognition
2021 Officer Installation
Join the Chapter! New Member Information

Y STUDENTS AT THE FAIR

Kyler Healy, Beef

Sheep; Abbie Forbes,